MARKED CATALOG

If you are unable to attend the show or would just like a marked catalog, you may purchase one by sending a check for $6.50 made payable to KFCS. Forward your check to the show secretary prior to the closing date so that an accurate count may be made.

"Meet the Keeshond Breed" has KFCS club member "stations" of grooming tables at the show site throughout the weekend during show hours. Conversations are one-to-one with a question and answer session between the club member and any interested spectators. Spectators are encouraged to touch the dogs and really get to know the Keeshond breed from a KFCS member – just ask! The KFCS member can also help you find a reputable Keeshond breeder or Keeshond rescue group. The Keeshond is a very old breed, and one of the very few which throughout history have always been raised for family companions and watchdogs. The fact that they have not been bred to hunt, kill animals, attack or chase criminals undoubtedly accounts for their gentle, intelligent devotion to their owners as home-loving dogs with a special fondness for children, for which they are renowned.
